PETROL PUMP WISDOM

A service station has become quite a landmark in Gauteng, South Africa, with its daily "Petrol Pump Wisdom", with uplifting quotes written on a chalkboard. Some motorists say they deliberately travel this route just to read the quote, which brightens their day.

Stop trying to make everybody happy—you're not tequila.

Don't do something permanently stupid because you're temporarily upset.

It's better to walk alone than with a crowd going in the wrong direction.

Be who you needed when you were younger.

If you have to choose between drinking wine every day or being skinny which would you choose? Red or white?

When you forgive you heal. When you let go you grow.

If you have a gun you can rob a bank but if you have a bank you can rob everyone.

Forgiveness does not change the past but it does enlarge the future.

In a world where you can be anything be kind.

When you make a commitment you build hope. When you keep it you build trust.

I am a woman. What's your superpower?

May your choices reflect your hopes not your fears.

The best time to plant a tree was 20 years ago. The second best time is now.

Why do we only rest in peace? Why don't we live in peace too?

This lovely bit of filler was sent to me by Carol Fellows, former District Secretary and current Peace Committee chair.

RIDDLES

Q. What has a mouth but cannot eat, what moves but has no legs, and what has a bank but cannot put money in it?

Q. There was a green house. Inside the green house there was a white house. Inside the white house there was a red house. Inside the red house there are lots of babies. What is it?
